Prime Cattle Auctioneer Richard Turner.

Good trade for young bulls. Premium grades 205-240ppk, commercial grades averaged 191ppk. Very few black and white bulls which ranged from 130-155ppk. Steers and heifers saw a better number of premium grades from 220-267ppk with best gross value adding up to £1409 for a 528kg heifer from AA AE Critchley & Son to Knavesmire Butchers. We fit up five butchers with quality cattle today. Commercial grades averaged averaged 191ppk similar to the young bull trade.

Cull cows proved a good entry of 148 with premium grades to 225ppk and young cows averaging 161ppk. Best dairy culls less money averaging 124ppk, lean cows less money generally 70-90ppk with feeding cows 90-110ppk. Continental feeding cows 120-156ppk.

Auctioneer Fred Spurgeon:

A good selection of all types in today's dairy ring with buyers till keen for milk. Top price went to Brian and Lisa Hall at £2,000 with heifers from Jennings Farmers at £1,950 and cows from H & N Gardner at £1,940.

First in the ring was a strong milky heifer from Pantomime Pete selling to a local farmer at £1,900. Two cows from George Whitwell sold at £1,880 and £1,720.

In-calf heifers were harder to place with a top price of £1,200 for H Gardner

NEXT WEEK is Cogent week. We expect 50 milkers. Entries by Tuesday morning please for the show catalogue. Already entered are 12 in-calf heifers by Genus bulls, 8 in-calf heifers pretested BVD vaccinated, 10 pedigree bulling heifers and 5 calves. We are in the second week of October and already people are asking for silage bales – it's going to be a long winter!

Fred and the dairy team ☺

204 calves today and a much improved trade on last week for the Continentals.

Top 16 Blue bulls £488 x4, £435, £425, £422, £420, £410, £390, £382, £365, £362, £355, £348 & £335. Top 16 Blue heifers £355, £350, £345, £340 x2, £338, £332, £325, £320, £315, £312, £310 x2 & £305 x3. Some lovely Charollais and Simmental bulls today £415, £390, £380, £378 x2, “290 x2. Angus and Herefords good to sell too. The only struggle today really were the black and white bulls. 121 stirks to follow. Today, there were far more suckler bred goods than dairy bred. The Continental bulls/steers were generally in the £650-£750 bracket and the heifers £100 less, although several storming heifers topped the £700 barrier. In a fortnight’s time on 26th October we have a stirks show – entries to the office for advertising as soon as possible.

Nice to see a returning face to the prime lamb ring. A small show sold to full value with 465 averaging 162ppk. Nice export types 160-170ppk with the better end 180-200ppk topping at 233ppk from F & H Waddington. The plainer and lighter end pulling the average back. Marjorie Sowerbutts had the top price for a trio at £115.50, other best butcher sorts over the £100 mark.

Rachel Capstick Auctioneer: Cast Sheep – A much better trade this morning. Plenty of good fat lambs above the 200p a Kilo to a top of 250p per Kilo £105. Decent weighing meated lambs where regularly either side of £80. The fat sale finished just before 11am, Get In , Get On, Get Home !

A handful of breeding rams sold nicely. The Top Five Texel Shearlings all came down from Cumbria at £300, £310, £330, £405 & £480.

Breeding Sheep next. All in all most goods were better to sell, most of the ewes were a bit of age. Top of the Shearlings were from David Carleton – Storming Cheviot's at £144. Straight Mules and Texels either side of £100.

Gimmer Lambs Next. Beautiful Charollais from WM Hall, Grassington at £126. Other well grown Continental gimmers could make up to £70-£80. Second rate goods would do as well in the stores. Mule Gimmers sold well today for the goods on offer- the best from Gordon Haynes made £80-£81.

Store Lambs could do over £60 regularly for the better sorts. An overall average of above £52 reflects a much improved trade on last week, but also generally better quality lambs forward.

Remember to book in your entries in on 01200 441351 by Tuesday lunch time for the following Saturday. We expect a larger entry and have 50 storming Cheviot & Suffolk x Cheviot Shearlings again from Colin Middleton.
