

FARMERS OF THE FUTURE Young Farmers Gimmer Lamb Show and Sale on Saturday 30 July 2011

A huge crowd of spectators looked on to watch the farmers of the future prepare and parade sheep at Gisburn Auction Marts Young Farmers Gimmer Lamb Show and Sale on Saturday 30 July. A total of twenty two farmers entered the show, aged between two and twenty six years old.

The overall champion was fifteen year old Hannah Chapman, Beverley, Harrogate, North Yorkshire a pupil of Nidderdale School and secretary of Nidderdale Young Farmers. Her Texel crossed Cheviot lamb prepared to a very high standard and perfectly trained for handling caught the eye of the judge, sheep showing guru, Neil Tattersall, Ellerton, York. Miss Chapman's lamb went on to sell for £108 to Ian Ibbotson, Oakworth, Keighley, West Yorkshire.

Alex Nutter, Higham, Lancashire was awarded first prize in the under 27 year old class. Full of enthusiasm, twenty year old Miss Nutter caught the judge's eye with a beautifully prepared Texel Lamb, which sold for £95 to David Stamper, Chipping, Preston, Lancashire.

Young farmers eagerly await their next show at Gisburn Auction Marts on Saturday 3 December.
