Buyers were not disappointed at this weeks Cogent Pedigree Dairy Sale at Gisburn Auction Mart. There was both quality and quantity on offer and a total of 17 found new homes in Cumbria. Reclaiming pole position was Colin Singleton selling a 35kg Buckeye heifer to J & MM Walmsley & Son, Downham for £2,250 closely followed by his 32kg Cogent Loader heifer selling at £2,200 to Richard Critchley & Sons, Preston. Last months winner Jeremy Taylor took £2,180 for a Bolivia Allan daughter and £2,020 for a Matson daughter both joining Geoff Wilson of Blackrigg, Carlisle. The Champion prize went to JR & ST Pye of Preston with a smart second calver by Regancrest Die Hard and she also joined Geoff Wilson at £2,020. Trade was especially firm for the second quality heifers with most selling around £1,700. In the regular weekly sale S & PJ Scrivin, Elslack took £1,920 for a Denmire sired heifer which continued their marvellous run of heifers by this bull. In calf cattle were harder to sell but top price of £1,760 went to Alan Harker with a heifer due to the Limousin selling to T Shuttleworth. A large pen of heifer calves sold upto £430 for John Shuttleworth and £260 for a Swedish Red from S Postlethwaite to David Graveston.

Prime sheep today at Gisburn continue to hold up and match the national trend. With numbers forward similar to last week existing and new buyers still keen to fill orders where more lambs could have been sold to vendor's advantage. Lightweights continue to be the most keenly bid for and regularly over the 200p/Kg mark for commercial 35Kg to 38Kg types. Commercial type Texels and Suffolk's out of mules from the 39Kg to 42kg bracket continue to hold the same and range from 180p/kg to 200p/kg depending on quality. Butchers type lambs still sell well up to 225p/kg or £94.50 per head. Ewes were forward in greater numbers and found a very good trade up by a noticeable margin due to ethnic festivals commencing in the next week or so. Topping the market was Jeff Boocock at £135 per head for his run of Texel ewes. Mule ewes from £65 to £85 per head.

Starkie stars at Dugdale sponsored dairy show. While a little disappointed with their second place in the newly calved heifer competition, Nick Starkie of A.C. and N. Starkie, Padiham, Burnley was on winning form in the sale ring taking the day's top price of £2,180 and equal second highest price of £2,080. The sale was sponsored by Clitheroe based feed manufacturer, Dugdale Nutrition. In addition Mr Starkie's second prize winning heifer went at £1,820 to agent, Aubrey Greenhalgh, Elswick, Preston. Both Messrs Starkie's top priced animals went to W.A. Blockley of Knutsford, Cheshire. The £2,080 leading price was later matched by John Carr, Chorley in a sale to T. Wilson of Rockcliffe, Carlisle. There were mixed fortunes when Robert Fryars of Singleton, Blackpool and son, Jack, made their first ever visit to Gisburn Mart as vendors. Their day started well when the judge, Howard Southwell of Earby, Colne, pulled forward their pedigree heifer, Carrdale Allstar Kathleen as the newly calved heifer champion, but turned into disappointment when the heifer left the ring unsold. However they also collected third place in the same section, this heifer going on to sell at £1,760 to, Aubrey Greenhalgh. David & Sue Graveston, B by B, took the top two places in the in-calf heifer class selling their champion at £1,660 to K & M. Berry & Son, Skipton & reserve to J. Shuttleworth & Son, Gargrave at £1,500. While James Rogerson, of J. & A.J. Rogerson, Singleton Poulton-le-Fylde won first prize in the newly calved cow class, which sold at satisfactory £1,840 to T. Wilson.

Auctioneers comment, Prime lambs and sheep today a better trade on the week with over 1050 head sold averaging 183p/kg . With our monthly prime lamb show well attended and over 170 entered for the show judge Stephen and Luke Swales had their work cut out. Prizes are listed above. Top price of 245p/kg for the fist prize pen of lambs from Frankland Farms. All other lambs sold today were well bid for with majority of the show lambs above the 200p/kg mark. Commercial sorts ranged from 175p/Kg to 195p/kg depending on weight. Heavy lambs harder to sell and taking a hit compared with lighter weights which were keenly bid for. Ewes a better trade on the week with an increased number forward. Best Texels although not the biggest made £113 and plenty of mule ewes forward for sale ranging from the £65 to £85 mark.
