2nd Mule Gimmer Lambs R Mawson

1st Continental Lambs J Pendlebury

WALKER & ALPE for the second year running picked up the Thomas Lodge Haynes memorial trophy at Gisburn Auction Marts Mule gimmer lamb show and sale last Saturday (7 September).

Pre-sale show judge Ben Kidd, Macclesfield had the very difficult task of placing the seventeen pens of lambs forward for judging and after much deliberation awarded the first prize rosette to Chipping based sheep and beef farming families-Walker & Alpe. Their pen of strong, well marked lambs later sold for £120 to Alan Butler, Earby. The same vendor also picked up the third prize rosette, with their next pen of lambs which later sold for £100. Richard Mawson, Addingham Moorside, picked up the second prize rosette with his pen of well grown, darker faced lambs which sold for £112 his next pen of slightly smaller-but no less smart lambs were awarded the fifth prize rosette and sold for £104. Gordon Haynes, Mitton, Whalley achieved £106 for his pen of bright, forward going lambs which earlier had picked up the fourth prize rosette. Rachel Capstick, sheep auctioneer, commented "Today's sale was the first sale of Mule gimmer lambs of the season in the area; it attracted a great deal of interest from southern and local buyers. Forward was a very even run of quality Mule gimmer lambs which averaged a £92.50, very respectable considering there has been little improvement in prime lamb prices in the last two weeks." With over 2000 sheep forward for the sale continued with all classes of breeding and store sheep. Henry Atkinson, Harrogate topped the market at £320 for a Beltex Shearling ram. Next best was Dorothy Doyle, Tosside, Skipton with a Dutch Texel ram which sold for £310. Continental gimmer shearling producers-Tim Jackson, Goosnargh, Preston and Malcolm Bell, Bolton by Bowland, Clitheroe both achieved £140 for their pens of Texels. Yet again-quality continental gimmer lambs were very much in demand, Mrs WM Hall, Grassington, Skipton topped this section at £138 for Charollais lambs. Marjorie Sowerbutts, Wigglesworth, Skipton sold her smart Texel gimmer lambs for £112, whilst Zwartbles gimmer lambs from Margaret Watkinson, Sessay, Thirsk sold for £110.
