Grandfather-Richard Seed senior had split loyalties as he proudly watched two of his grandchildren, cousins Rachel Harrison and Richard Seed battle it out at Gisburn Auction Marts Young Handlers Gimmer Lamb show last Saturday. It was 16 year old Rachel, a member of Slaidburn Young Farmers Club and pupil at Nelson & Colne College who earlier in the day had picked up first prize rosette in the 12 to 16 year old age group class, with her Zwartbles cross Jacob gimmer lamb, prepared to perfection and expertly handled, which caught the eye of judges David & Laura Coar, Darwen, Lancashire. Pipping her cousin, to the top spot of champion young handler, her lamb later sold for £110 to Clapham Brothers, Sowerby Bridge. Cousin, Richard Seed, vice chairman of Chipping Young Farmers club and pupil at Newman College, was not disappointed though he won the reserve champion young handler award and first prize rosette in the 17 to 27 year old age group class with his Beltex gimmer lamb which was trimmed and presented to a very high standard, which sold for £110 to Tim Jackson, Goosnargh, Preston. Second prize winner, Laura Banks, Hutton, Preston achieved the top price of the day with her Beltex gimmer lamb, sired by Airyolland Pilot, which sold for £165 to AC Dent & EO Nixon, Harwood in Teasdale, County Durham. The 11 year and under class was the most competitive of all the classes, with Sam Phillipson, Briercliffe, Burnley winning the top spot in this class. Sister-Molly won the second prize award and Ryan Haworth, Rossendale picked up the third prize.

The show was very kindly sponsored by Judith Smith of JS Accountancy, Clitheroe.

Several really nice farmer heifers today with Bargh Bros., topping the sale at £2100. An entry of 26 cattle prior to next weeks Christmas show was a good chance for local buyers to get filled up. Two cows from A Midgley made £1430 and £1560, considering they were fourth lactation and not cubicle cattle was a pleasing result. Gisburn trade for in-calf cattle is always strong and Alan Walton sold three in calf heifers due to Angus for December at £1600, £1580 & £1540. In calf cows sold to £1410. Next week we expect 75 cattle, with a strong entry of newly calved cattle and coloured class promised!

A good show of lambs today and a good trade to match. Heavy lambs abundant however handy weights selling at a premium and attracting the attention of 8 buyers. Lambs between 38Kg and 42Kg finding the keenest of bidding to 170p/Kg and 190p/Kg or £30-£40 over the weight, mule lambs £25 -£30 over their weight. Plenty of leaner type ewe's forward today and finding a reasonable trade and selling well on the week. Don't forget the Xmas show Monday 16th December. A quick and effective way to market your livestock to it best advantage and still be home before dark!

Quality heifers were in abundance at the Cogent Pedigree Dairy show and sale today. David Booth, Broom House chose two very good heifers with very correct udders. The champion from Colin Singleton a Ginary Twist daughter sold for £2250 to WA Blockley and reserve-Lee Donkin, heifer went to RT Halhead at £2140. As the sale progressed it was clear that customers wanted milk and the top price £2500 of the day came for the last animal in the ring from James & Anne Rogerson. Their Shotgun daughter, giving 38 litres sold at £2500 to RT Halhead. Colin Singleton hit £2450, £2350 & £2300 all three giving 30kgs. With 14 heifers selling for £2000 or more – trade could be described as excellent! In the commercial section both Peter Smith and David Graveston showed some smart heifers and achieved £2200 and £2100. Surprise of the day came from a Shorthorn from Messrs Throup selling to Chris Harrison at £1720. In calf cows sold to £1450 and in calf heifers to £1660. Heifer calves from RG Johnson sold to £390 and a group of spring born Friesain stirks from Dumfries sold to £600.

A very strong trade for the first in lamb sheep of the season. Topping the sale at £405 was an in lamb Suffolk ewe from David Williams, Denbighshire, scanned in lamb for twins to the Suffolk ram-Rhaeadr Rubicon for January she sold to Matthew Sharpe, Gisburn. Charollais in lamb shearlings peaked at £360 from Robert Towers, Farleton. Chris Pearson, West Marton topped the Charollais ewe trade with a 4 year old, scanned in lamb to Banwy Nightrider due for December, she sold for £305. A run of smart, empty Tullagh Sheriff sired, Texel gimmer lambs sold for £240, £225 & £220 from Alec & Gemma Brown, Darwen. Beltex sheep guru-Anthony Thompson, Foulridge presented a pen of ten Beltex store lambs which picked up the first prize rosette in the Continental class & later in the day the overall champion pen of store lambs, they sold for £96 to C Buckley, Huddersfield. Ronnie Johnson, B by B was in them money when he sold his second prize pen of Texel store lambs to the pre-sale show judge S Bristo, York for £93.50.

A totally different show of cattle this week with on the of the best pedigree classes for many months. It was a hard call for judge Wick Williams with little to choose between the top three. Ben Hardcastle & Sons picked up both the first and second prize winners in the pedigree class which sold at £2300 and £2280 to Doug Graves. James & Anne Rogerson picked the third prize rosette with their heifer which sold for £2320 to WA Blockley. Of the 34 milkers on offer twelve achieved £2000 or more. Top price cow came from Pete Dakin at £2100 with Robert Lister next at £1980. Commercial heifer winners were Robert & Raymond Johnson at £2120 and £2100. Neil Forshaw sold a 'three quarter bagged' heifer at £1300. In calf heifers made to £1450 and heifer calves to £320
