A record entry for February provided some first class heifers at today's dairy sale. Regular vendor Lee Donkin was the winner and claimed top price of £2,850 for a Bosside Altaross heifer which sold to the judge Doug Graves. Reserve Champion went to Anthony Bretherton with a ME Dal Alliance heifer out of a VG86 dam also selling to the judge for £2,700. Also at £2,700 was an unplaced heifer from James & Anne Rogerson by Lynncrest Zebra going to Dave Coulthurst. WA Booths third prize heifer topped £2,500 to local buyer David Walmsley, Downham. Out of an entry of 50 milkers 20 made over £2,000 and most heifers in the commercial section made over £1,900. Philip Baldwin won the cow class for the 2nd month running with a Dev-Lin Dayton 2nd calver going to David Coulthurst. A run of In-calf heifers from Gary Drake made to £1,660 to Shuttleworths. An entry of young calves for Peter Dakin and Jos Lancaster sold well when a younger and prettier auctioneer took over with Black & Whites to £450 and Red & Whites to £470. A 22 month old stock bull by Samuelo finished the sale at £1,000 to Wick Williams.

Despite the stormy weather a good turnout of dairy today. First in the ring were Days of Royton with another run of smart black heifers with four over £2,000. F & M Parkinson claimed top price at £2,200 with Brian and Lisa Hall close behind at £2,180. There were plenty of heifers either side of £1,800 but no robberies at the lower end of the market. Some older in-calf Friesian cows sold to £1,270 and an in-calf heifer due to sexed semen sold to Tom Green for £2,140. Next week is the Cogent Pedigree Sale to include 3 bulling heifers and 5 dairy heifer calves.

167 Calves and Stirks forward today with no let up in the demand for quality continentals. 27 Blue bulls sold between £200 and £545 from John Lund, Rimington, followed next by Harry Raw, Eastburn £460, £460, £458, £450 and £440 to achieve an overall average of £345. 24 Blue heifers ranged from £150 to £370 to average £262. Edgar Davis' journey up from South Yorkshire was worth the effort, his Simmental bulls selling for £412 and £380 and heifers £310 and £270. Charolais bulls ranged between £300 and £475 whilst Peter Dakin's run of smart young heifers sold to £278 (ave. £256). Angus and Hereford bulls continue to attract much farmer buyer interest averaging £238 and £204 respectively and their female counterparts £158 and £160. A larger show of black and whites today. The 67 forward sold to a high of £250 for a trio from Harry Raw, Eastburn. Plenty of better end sorts above £100 to achieve an overall average of £73.40 for all quality. Only a handful of Stirks today, as we intend swapping weeks in the future to the Thursday prior to a Saturday Sale. What was in sold well – blue bullocks £760 (ave. £720) heifers £640 (ave. £579). Please pre enter wherever possible in the future to aid marketing.

Best Newly Calved Pedigree Heifer

1st JG Hall & Son £24202nd JG Hall & Son £24803rd TH Wensley & Sons £2200

Brian & Lisa Hall had a splendid day taking the first and second prize rosettes in the dairy show, the heifers sold for £2480 & £2420 to David Coulthurst. Fred Parkinson was unplaced in the show with a smaller heifer that also went to David Coulthurst at £2450. Andrew Slack, Carlisle was on form and took heifers from Booths and Parkinsons at £2400 and £2300.

For the first time the average was over £2000 for all 23 newly calved heifers on offer (£2019). Shorthorn crosses were good to sell with Jacksons, Wiswell at £1900 and RG Johnson selling another two Shorthorns for over £1800

A few less about today – 141 calves and stirks forward. The anticipated price drop in black and whites was not as marked as some had predicted. Prices ranged from £10 to £178 for a six week old thick backed British Friesian from Mark Tattersall, Rossendale. Plenty of others sold above £100. An overall average of £67 for all quality was achieved today.

Twenty blue bulls varied between £235 and £468 for a trio of 2 months olds from Alan Bowker, Cowling. Although not as many exceeding £400 today, blue bulls were an even trade averaging £372 right through.

Alan Bowker achieved double again by also topping the Blue Heifers with a batch of five at £380 a piece going to Kirkby Stephen. Pence shy of an overall average of £300 was achieved.

E & M Joule, Bolton had the overall top price calf today with a Simmental bull at £500, with others at £455, £420, followed by David Mattinson with a smart young chocolate and white calf at £378 to David Poskitt, Doncaster.

A few more Limousins about today all young calves, bulls topped at £330 from James Wellock, Eshton to average £229 and heifers from R Jackson & Sons, Wiswell to a high of £288 and an overall average £250.

On the native front, Hereford bulls to £262 from Neil Hanson, Barnoldswick (ave. £244) and Angus bulls to £365 twice from Jim Faud, Great Harwood and also TB & JB Eastham, Samlesbury (av. £284).

The Stirks which followed the calves all attracted plenty of farmer buyer interest. Bob Haworth, Bacup sold a pair of black Limousin x heifers at £550 to Bob Lancaster, farmer and fencing contractor of West Marton and a pair of Simmental x at £540. G & M Harrison, Slaidburn's smart blue x heifer was snapped up for £530 to Messrs. Hesketh, Preston.

At Gisburn Auction we strive to market your stock, not simply sell it. The Stirk sales will now be held every fortnight on the Thursday immediately prior to a Saturday Store Sale, which should help ease headaches the six day rule continues to cause! Please, wherever possible give us advance warning of your entries in order to advertise and contact purchasers on your behalf Auctioneers: Richard Turner & Son
