Auctioneers comment – A great show of lambs today with numbers increasing all the time still meeting a great trade. New buyers in attendance where more lambs could have been sold to vendors advantages. An overall sale average of 210p/Kg to include a vast majority of commercial type lambs from 205p/Kg to 215p/Kg depending on weight and quality. Good runs of lambs from WA Towler, Grindleton topping at £95 per head for his Beltex cross lambs and J Mellin at Long Preston topping at £100 per head. Ewes were the real highlight of the day selling at extreme rates with several pens of horned ewes from A Rogerson, Chipping over the £70 mark. More numbers and buyers expected next week and for further information please contact J Turner 07834772276.

With more numbers forward buyers were very selective with 35 to choose from. The trade for best pedigree heifers remains strong with Sam Chapman & Harry Gardner both hitting £2500 each. Poorer sorts and anything with a fault suffered today but there were still lots of useful heifers at £1600-£1700. A big entry is expected for next weeks Dugdale Dairy Show, watch out for Wednesday's text.

A fabulous show of pedigree heifers today with 16 over £2,000. Well done to Philip Critchley and family topping the trade at £2,700 followed by Ben Hardcastle at £2,500. A late pedigree entry from P Baldwin caught the eye of Wilmot Buckley and made £2,480. Regular vendor Lee Donkin was also up in the top flight selling at £2,450. Most of the top price cattle went to buyers in the Carlisle area. In calf heifers sold to £2,000 for a Tennyson heifer in calf to sexed semen and bulling heifers topped at £900 twice. Total 64 sold.

Auctioneers comment: Numbers increase while trade remains strong!! Trade in line with other markets this week averaging 235p/Kg or £90 per head topping at 300p/Kg with some smashing Beltex lambs from R Lambert, Wigglesworth weighing 35Kg to Knavesmere butchers. Other great runs of lambs from M Hewitt, Settle topping at 295p/Kg. Lots of lightweight lambs forward today and finding good homes at good prices with R Caton selling 33Kg lambs at 261p/Kg. Heavy lambs were also wanted today topping at £136 per head from R Howarth, Accrington. Cast ewes and rams once again an unbelievable trade with all types, breeds and quality's an extreme trade.

Auctioneers comment: A Fantastic trade to start the week! An increased entry of new season lambs forward to an increased trade levelling at 244p/Kg. More lambs required to meets buyers demands. Farm assured lambs selling particularly well today with some large runs of lightweight lambs finding keen bidding at £40-£45 over their weight. Other good runs of Charollais lambs from G Parker Slaidburn at 263p/Kg and Texels from J Mellin Long Preston at 273p/Kg, good runs of 37kg lambs from B Lancaster, West Marton at £101.5 and commercial Suffolk from RR Walker, Longridge selling to £108.50. More lambs could have been sold this morning to vendors advantage here at Gisburn's auctions quick and efficient morning sale with no waiting around. Cast ewes slightly less in numbers this morning however trade remained strong and previous prices remained prudent with leaner type ewes in high demand.

A big entry for early June with a very mixed show. Top class heifers were snapped up quickly by Geoff Wilson, Doug Graves and John Rodgerson. Top price was £2300 twice for Richard Critchley, Philip Baldwin and Harry Gardner came in at £2250. In calf heifers topped at £1750 for M Bretton. Second quality cattle were harder to sell with some useful heifers at £1500 to £1600.

Auctioneers comment: A fantastic trade to start the week following on from Thursday there was no let up in trade. With more lambs now coming on to the market and a plenty full audience of 7 or more active buyers at Gisburn lambs averaged 266p/Kg where more could have been sold to advantage. Topping the market at 311p/Kg was J Knowles, Feizor and £111.50 for Texel's from Kevin Purtil, Wigan. Great runs of lambs from G & M Dakin, Sawley at 37Kg realising £105 per head and RR & M Walker, Longridge also £105 per head. Ewes again a flying trade with lean hill type ewes still looking the dearest however lowland types just as good selling to £108 per head.
