Had a good day at the Dairy event at Telford yesterday and I was very impressed by the cattle on show, We seemed to have moved back from extreme Holsteins to stronger and slightly smaller cows with excellent udders, a trend which has been evident in the auction ring for a long time. Milk price was obviously on everyone's mind but even my old friend Mike Stevens on the Wiseman stand was not giving any signals for improvement. The amount of new tackle available was amazing but the question has to be asked – Who can afford it? My visit to the semen stands confirmed that beef semen sales are up 50% not only here but on the continent, so where are all the replacements going to be in 2 years time?

There was no shortage of replacements at today's sale and trade was all over the place. First in the ring was 2nd prize heifer from Asquith's which soon climbed to £1920 to John Dodgson and as usual heifers giving 30+ litres were easy to sell. First prize commercial heifer came from John Moorhouse, Waddington, which was an Ayrshire cross with black legs and a fantastic udder, she was claimed by Clayton Partnership at £1640. In the pedigree class judged by Colin Middleton, Holgate's Aliann Braxton Fortuna was a clear winner and sold at £1940 also to Clayton Partnership. Reserve Champion went to Avenham Chandon Venice 2 and joined John Dodgson's collection of 6. It wasn't all plain sailing and some heifers seem to struggle for no apparent reason and there were some bargains. Bulling heifers sold to £820 twice for R Corlett and heifer calves were in good supply and topped at £330 for P Dakin, Peter's calves are BVD tested and it is well worth the effort. Next week we expect 30 milkers and on 1st October we have an entry of bulling heifers from M Gornall.

| A quieter day in the sheep yard as is usual on this particular Saturday of the year, due in part to The Hodder Valley Show. But plenty of customers round the ringside ensured a straight trade was had by all and the better end a touch dearer than of late. Well grown Texel x Mule gimmers were all £75-£78. Better store lambs regularly £55+. Next Saturday 19 September is usually one of the busiest sales of the year. It includes the annual show and sale of Horned and Hill going sheep. The Frank Wade Perpetual Memorial Trophy is awarded annually to the best pen of 10 Swaledale Ewes. This year Nathan Wade has kindly offered to present a silver trophy for the best pen of 10 Lonk Ewes. We expect a nice entry of Horned sheep and hill going sheep; several new vendors are trying us with a pen or two! We encourage all vendors to pre-enter wherever possible by ringing through to the office 01200 441351 with entries by Tuesday lunchtime. | | |

| Very quiet today with some grass still to get and Westmorland Show taking some market regulars. RG Johnson took top price with a 35L heifer selling to T Green at £1800 followed by Keith & William Slinger at £1790 to Wick Williams. A second calf dispersal cow from Joe Brakewell made a very sound £1420 to Hill & Davies and N Schofield's were not far behind with a similar cow at £1340. There was a "funny" show of smaller heifers which settled either side of £1200 but the only In-calf heifer from J & S Bradley was well sold at £1300. Next week is Cogent Pedigree week when we expect 60 milkers followed by 20 bulling heifers and 15 heifer calves. | | | | | |

There were plenty of customers around the ring today and plenty of dairy cattle on offer. Regular vender Colin Singleton fell just short of the £2000 mark at £1980 with a fantastic heifer which could have made £2500 last year. Philip Critchley had a good day, early in the sale selling at £1880 and £1800. Joe Holden had first prize commercial heifer with a very powerful 30ltr heifer selling at £1780.

H Raw Eastburn won the cow class selling at £1700 followed by a good block of heifers at £1680. There were some useful dispersal cows on offer which seemed good value in the £1000 to £1100 bracket and some heifers still get a hard time if they don't quite tick the boxes. Heifer calves at the end of the sale made to £360 for D & LM Cowgill.
