We started bang on 9.30am this morning. Ewes were a flying trade, best continentals either side of £100, best Mules £70's topping at £87 for Daryll Capstick. Horned ewes generally either side of £50 but the Lonks and Grits could do £60's.

Today was our Saturday Christmas Lamb Show. Thanks to the sponsors Ben Shaw Training and Morgan Helliwell for judging. First prize and Champion lambs were shown by John Wood, Trawden who also received the Crooppers Butchers of Accrington Trophy with a pen of 40kg Beltex Lambs which went on to sell to the judge for £132. The reserve lambs also from John Wood weighed 47kg and sold to M N Alam for £117. Full show results next pages

Look out for the production sale of in-lamb sheep from John Wood and Anthony Thompson on Saturday 6th January!

Outwith the show lambs, we had a very solid trade indeed resulting in an SQQ average of 187.3ppk. It was nice to welcome some new faces again to our handy

Saturday morning sale #Get in, get on, Get Home! Store lambs next, plenty of better lambs in the mid £60's topping at £72.

Soon after 12.30pm we moved up to the calf ring (due to our current renovation works) for the flock sale of in-lamb Mule ewes from J Holden & Sons, Stonyhurst due to the Texel ram and scanned up for February topped at £130 (average £92).

All in all a good day. See you next week.

The sheep yard team ☺
