Pig Auctioneers – Annis Schofield with Jack Pickup typical start to the sale with plenty of smart entries of weaners forward, averaging £34.39, realising £58 for Mrs Ibbotson's 10 week old large white crosses. Fewer store pigs but keeping strong prices, realising £70 for Sarah Whitley's glouster old spots. Great to see really strong entries of prime pigs forward today averaging £101.11, topping at £135 from Mr P & K Bentley's saddle backs. In Pig Sows made strong trade today, all large white sows in pig to either a large white or large white cross boar, averaging £141.25.

Prime/ Store/ Breeding Sheep Auctioneer Rachel Capstick:

A decent entry of 339 cast ewes selling to a high of £151 from John Wood Trawden. Plenty of the better continentals £125-£150, Mule's to £130, Swale's to £74.

Just shy of 600 hogg's. We couldn't match last Saturday's exceptional trade but an overall average of 237p an acceptable result for the goods on offer today. Top prices per Kilo came from John Wood Trawden, with 37kgs Texel's @ £126 (340.5p) and James and Janette Pate, Gisburn 38kg Texel's at the same price (331.6p). Top prices per head from Charles Stanton at £133.50. Ted Wilson and Bill Heyes both at £132. Plenty of pens with weight and finish above of £120. The amount of stores put through the fat ring dragged the average back. We need runs of proper fed hogg's each week, until spring lambs start to come forward.

Goats with kids were very good to sell indeed. The Bradley family from Long Preston topped the market with a Toggenburg Nanny with twin British Alpine kids at £200, followed by P Rathmell at £188. Frankland Farms sold to a high of £180 for single outfits.

Sheep and Lambs were definitely better to sell on a warmer Saturday and with a decent weather forecast for next week. Jim Faud had a super twin Texel outfit away at £260. Plenty of double outfits in the £160-£200 bracket. Topping with singles was Harry Wood, Dutton with Mule shearlings and strong Suffolk Lambs at £200. Correct ewes with single's from Jim Faud at £164, Mick Garrity at £147 and Sally Sleightholme at £140.

Remember, we sell sheep with lambs at foot every Saturday, at approximately 11.30am after the fat sale. Vendors please ring in with your entries for advertising and the ballot by next Tuesday lunch time. Thanks

REMEMBER, we are selling sheep and lambs every Saturday. Please ring the office by Tuesday lunchtime with entries and let's hope for some more Spring-like weather!
