Dairy Auctioneer Fred Spurgeon. Auctioneer's Clerk: Val Lawson

It wasn't show week but we had a quality entry in the dairy shippons today with lots of milk on offer. Cows from GT Booth all giving 40+ litres made from £1500 to £1700 and cows from Bargh Brothers also made to £1700.

A heifer from Richard Bainbridge topped the sale at £1980 and Mike Robinson was next at £188. There were plenty either side of £1500.00 fit to go anywhere.

Next week is Cogent Week with entries from new vendors followed by 12 young stock from the Aliann Herd TB4 (info on the web) 22 in calf cows and heifers from Barrie Pye TB4 (pre-tested) and 1 Norwegian Stock Bull 3yr old fit to go in cubicles and has been easy to calve.

Thursday 25th following the weekly sale: 70 – 75 new calved and in calf Fleckvie / Mont / Norwegian Red for Geoff Carter- Inskip. We are preparing a catalogue which we will get on the website next week. These cattle are sure to fit in any system.

Calf and Stirk Auctioneer: Rachel Capstick. Auctioneer's Clerk: Ann Faraday

A busy day with 335 Calves and stirks through the door and buyers from Scotland to Norfolk and everywhere between!

Those best blue bulls regularly over £400; £455, £452 x2 £445 £432 £428 £410 £402 to average £282 for 45 forward. The heifers were a better trade with numerous over £300; £382 £358 £350 £345 £338 £312 £308 to average £226 for all 35 forward.

The top price heifer was £410 for an absolute beauty of a Charolais.

Native bulls would not be as dear as last week. That being said, plenty Angus £250-£300 to a high of £368. Angus heifers were generally £150.

Stirks followed. The young suckler bred bulls and steers were generally about £600, to a high of £690. Heifers were harder to place. That being said a couple of batches of Dairy x Angus got away nicely.

The next stirk sale is in a fortnight on 25th October, which includes our Autumn Show. We remind vendors to ring the office 01200441351 with entries prior to Tuesday 23rd for the catalogue

Thanks

NEXT WEEK: Weekly sale of calves at 10.30am
