Dairy Auctioneer Fred Spurgeon:

Another quality entry for today's Cogent sale with prices to match. Colin Singleton took champion and reserve with an almost matching pair of heifers sellings at £2,300 and £2280.

P Knowles continues to produce some eye-catching heifers, selling his best at £2,260. Regular vendor WA & A Booth, Feizor were next in line at £2,250 to Brian Blezard. RW Bainbridge and James Rogerson were also in the top flight at £2,180 and £2,140.

First prize non-pedigree came from Brian and Lisa Hall, selling at £1,820 with Bargh Brothers' 2nd prize at £1,780, both going to Redmayne's, Salmlesbury.

Pedigree in-calf heifers due April sold to £1,500 with longer dated non-pedigrees to £1,200. An exceptional bulling heifer from Jill Teasdale caught the eye of Aubrey Greenhalgh, especially as it was carrying the Newbirk prefix and sold for £940.

NEXT WEEK we expect 25-30 new calved with 6 from David and Sue Graveston and 8 from Malcolm Fell. Fred and the dairy team ☺

A nice entry of calves, sixty of which were Blues. The bulls ranged in shape and size from two weeks old at £195 to a high of £518 for a super strong calf at £518 from Paul and John Cowgill. Also from the same home, 4 at £438 and 2 at £420. Others above £400 from J & M Leeming at £460 and £405. A trio at £440 from Alan Bowker and £410 from Graham Airey. The heifers too ranged widely, providing something for everyone, from £188 to £408 for a trio from Alan Bowker again.

The rest of the Continentals were a nice trade too, as were the Angus and Herefords. The dairy bred bulls were better to sell today too. Montbeliardes from £200 to £282 and Holstein Friesians to £170, plenty above £100.

A reminder to vendors: we are no longer allowed to accept calves needing amendment of passport for the wrong details. This must be sorted with BCMS before calves come to the market.

STIRKS – a lighter entry of stirks this week but, a packed ringside with many potential purchasers going home empty handed. We had some nice young suckler bred goods forward. Topping the market was a Limousin bull at £755 from David Clapham. Six Limousin x Blue heifers from JM Fisher topped at £750, £710, £690 x2 and £670 x2. Steers from the same stable at £685 and £675 and more from the same home entered for this Saturday. The black & white bulls and steers were a far better trade too. NEXT STIRKS SALE is Thursday 1st March, please pre-enter for the catalogue. Thank you.

Another nice entry of over 500 lambs. A mixed entry with the best meat commercial lambs 210-220ppk, butchers' lambs 220-240ppk with a top of 270ppk from FS Faud & Son, who also achieved top price per head at £121.50. Heavy weights not quite as dear as previous weeks but still around the £2pkg mark. Lightweight lambs good to sell if carrying flesh. Leaner types harder to place. Overall average of 195ppk and SQQ of 193ppk.

EWES – FS Faud peaked at £104 with a Texel tup, matched by M & C Greenwood with a Texel ewe at the same price. Strongest continentals £78-£90. Smaller sorts either side of £55.
