Quality and quantity in the dairy ring today which was expertly judged by Andrew Townsend. He chose a pedigree heifer from G & M A Smith as champion and bought it for top price of £2,280. A non registered cow from M J Fell went to Hill & Davies, Wrexham at £2,120 and reserve champion from Lee Donkin went to the same buyer at £2,100.

Trade was strong from start to finish with seven over £2,000 and nineteen over £1,800.

A bigger than usual entry of in-calf heifers sold to £1,590 for E Nowell & Son who averaged £1,520 for three.

Bargh Bros had an unselected group of in-calf heifers for November/December making up to £1,530.

Bulling heifers made to £910 for Doug Graves and £900 for James Kayley.

Heifer calves were good to sell with all making £250-£260.
